

The Mickey Hightower collection of Wedgwood to be offered at Bonhams Skinner in March of 2025. Mickey started collecting in 1980, first with his attraction to black basalt and rosso antico and then moving on to the many 19th and 20th century wares including those produced by studio and freelance artists of their day. Comprised of a number of hand painted pieces by Emile Lessore, a variety of Marsden wares, a wide assortment of Ivory Vellum, 2nd period bone china ornamental wares, and from artists including Keith Murray, Erling Olsen, Norman Wilson, Michael Dillon, Elwyn James and Anita Synovec.

Mickey has a long history with Wedgwood collectors and his involvement with the Wedgwood International Seminar. He has served as secretary and President and currently is the Seminar Director

We are currently accepting additional fine examples or collections of Wedgwood to accompany the Hightower collection. Please contact Stuart Slavid at stuart.slavid@bonhamsskinner.com or at 508-970-3278.
